

The Top10: Mini-Moons

With the stress of planning a wedding, many opt to postpone their proper honeymoon and escape for a quick, relaxing trip immediately following the nuptials. Read more to discover some of our favorite destinations that are easy to get to, but completely relaxing.

Cartagena Hotel: Casa San Agustin

Preserved by ancient fortifications built by the Spanish, Cartagena de Indias, commonly called Cartagena, is a stunning time capsule on the shores of the Caribbean. World class music, film and literature festivals (Nobel Prize winning Colombian author Gabriel Garcia Marquez kept a home here), talented chefs and chic hotels and shops are luring those in search of seaside culture. Image Courtesy Casa San Agustin.