At the King's Mansion

In Memphis, Tenn., Elvis Presley's Graceland just got five times larger with a $137 million expansion. The renovations add more than 200,000 square feet of updates, including a new visitor center, two new restaurants, and a museum (above) covering everything Elvis – from his fashion trends to automobiles. 901-332-3322; graceland.com

If Ferraris Are Your Thing

Ferrari Land, Europe's first Ferrari theme park, launched in April in Terragona, Spain. Board an 180-foot free-fall tower, test your skills as a pit stop mechanic, race around the 0.3-mile-long track in go-karts fashioned after Ferraris, pilot an authentic Formula 1 simulator, and more. 011-34-977-779-090; portaventuraworld.com/en/ferrari-land

Pole Position Challenge

Science Lessons

Delve into the science of flight, sight, and more at the new Philip and Patricia Frost Museum of Science in Miami. The museum explores topics ranging from the ocean's depths to outer space, with a three-level, 500,000-gallon aquarium and 250-seat, globe-shaped planetarium. Check out "Feathers to the Stars," the museum's main permanent exhibit, which assays the story of flight from dinosaurs to space travel. 305-434-9600; frostsscience.org

Bedding Down in Africa

Stay in one of 13 luxury tents at the One Nature Nyaruswiga Safari Lodge, which opened in January in Tanzania's Serengeti. Each canvas tent features a wood-burning stove, walk-in closet, silver chandelier, Italian-leather bar, and emperor-size bed with a white-goose-down duvet. On your tent's veranda, lounge in the mahogany daybed while looking for wildlife. Venture out with a guide – via safari vehicle, helicopter, or hot-air balloon – to see lions, leopards, rhinos, giraffes, and many more animals. From $820. 011-971-4-558-6911; onenaturehotels.com/nyaruswiga

At the Ultima Gstaad hotel in Gstaad, Switzerland, relax at its new 8,600-square-foot spa, featuring a hammam, sauna, nail bar, 40-foot pool, indoor and outdoor hot tubs, gym, and more. Swiss skincare line La Prairie provides anti-aging face and body treatments, and Aesthetics Clinic contributes a team of two doctors and two nurses offering customized treatments (including DNA testing) to visitors. Try the caviar massage, ice crystal facial, or Tibetan sound massage. 011-41-33-748-0550; ultimagstaad.com/spa

The Casa San Agustín hotel in Cartagena, Colombia, just opened its Aurum Spa, decorated lavishly in golden tints to match its name, which means “gold” in Latin. All treatments and rituals draw from local ingredients, such as Colombian coffee, volcanic mud, and horse chestnut, with organic skincare line Naturopathica providing oils, lotions, and aromatherapy. 855-272-1122; hotelcasasanagustin.com
